They do not have to worry about the information of the staff and student report because the information is kept in the database through the data or report that staff or students make. This thesis research has three objectives that need to be achieved. The first objective is to identify the requirement of UiTM auxiliary police report system. The second objective is to design the UiTM auxiliary police report system. The last objective is to develop the UiTM auxiliary police report system. The achievements of the objectives are done through interviewing the UiTM auxiliary police officer as well as review of related literatures to understand the concepts applied in this project. The development of UiTM auxiliary police report system requires hardware tools consist of windows 7 ultimate, MySQL, PHP, adobe Photoshop and others that will be described in analysis and discussion section. Further details and explanation of UiTM auxiliary police report system are described briefly in this report.
