Preface

It is with great pleasure and pride that I present to you Voice of The Soul Volume III: A poetry compilation with the theme of Healing With Poetry. This volume is a testament to the power of words to heal, comfort, and transform. The 200 poems contained within these pages are diverse in theme and style, yet they are united by a common purpose which is to offer relief and insight during times of struggle and to celebrate the flexibility of the human spirit.

As the chief editor, I have had the honour of curating and refining these works, ensuring that each poem resonates with the theme of healing. This journey has been a deeply enriching experience, allowing me to witness the myriad ways in which poets can articulate pain, joy, hope, and recovery. Each contributor has poured their heart and soul into their verses, creating a tapestry of emotions and reflections that will undoubtedly touch every reader.

This compilation would not have been possible without the unwavering support and collaboration of many individuals. I extend my heartfelt gratitude to our dedicated team of editors, who meticulously reviewed each submission, and to the poets whose bravery and creativity have brought this project to life. Special thanks are also due to our publishing team for their hard work in bringing this volume to fruition.

Healing With Poetry is more than just a collection of poems; it is a journey through the human experience, offering a beacon of light for those navigating the darker times. It is my hope that these poems will provide you with the same comfort and inspiration that they have given me.

Thank you for joining us on this journey of healing and self-discovery.

Warm regards,
Editor-in-Chief
Sharina Sa'ad

EDUCATION AND THE SURVIVAL OF LIFE

By : Fauziana Bt Fauzi @ Mat Rawi

Life is full of colors,
Sometimes we are happy but sometimes we are sad,
Sometimes we feel motivated but sometimes we feel unmotivated.
But for sure, year by year, we grow up and develop.
Not only in physical but also spiritual and knowledge.
From just a child with full support from others,
We are now able to be on our own feet.
As time flies,
Along the journey, the challenges keep accompanying us.
As we grow up, the challenges become harder.
From just a student, we are now a worker.
From being alone, we now have a family with a husband and children.
From just being a child to our parents,
We are now a backbone for them.
Yes, it is true.
Life is a cycle.
So, what helps us to stay strong, grow, and survive?
EDUCATION!
Yes, it is education.
A big thanks to our parents who always support us in education.
Contributing money, time, and effort,
Sacrificing everything for our future.
The same goes to the teachers and our lecturers.
Work hard to deliver knowledge, putting aside all difficulties.
After being a lecturer, I now know the hardship of teaching.
Facing students with different backgrounds and behaviors.
But what keeps me going?

PASSION.

Yes, a passion for teaching.

I can see and confirm that education is a tool of survival.

With education, we can live in peace.

With education, we can support our families,

With education, we can give better education to our children.

But now, are the new generations aware of this?

Should we deny education if we can be influencers or tick-tockers?

No.

EDUCATION is the FUNDAMENTAL for all.

It is hard to learn now.

But it is harder to survive without education later.
