ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Alhamdulillah, first and foremost, I would like to express my thankful to Allah The Almighty, the mercy of giving me the inner strength and chance to complete my research study successfully. Because of His generosity, this study is already booking. The completion of this, represent the cooperation and helpful given by a number of individual in MARA University of Technology and Human Resources Department of Jaya Jusco Malacca.

A number of individuals have helped to make this research report. First I owe an enormous intellectual debt to my advisor, Mr. Suhaimi Bin Abd Samad, who has contributed greatly information in my research study such as his willingness to provide constructive guide and comments on my work.

Second for Mrs. Saliza that work in Human Resources Department to cooperate with me such as give a permission to study the issue in her organization that is Jaya Jusco, Malacca. And not forgotten, a million thanks to their employees that willing to cooperate to act as the respondents to fulfill the questionnaires disseminated to them.

I wish a lot of thankful to my lovely parents who was always encourage me to do well in my studies. Finally, I am indebted to my colleague for creating an environment within which I am enjoying to do my work.

Hopefully this report will further enhance perspective and understanding the kinds of benefit that may influence the job satisfaction in the workplace. Lastly I will of course, blame all errors and omissions contained in this report on me.

ABSTARCT

Most people have heard about benefits and have general idea of what the words means. It was a pay equally according to any qualification that are related with the work they holds. All these benefits were considered to bring satisfaction while giving them security when they are in works. Meanwhile job satisfaction will be influence by these benefits. It is the important things for the organizations to know whether the benefits provided bring satisfactions or not to their jobs. It is because the job satisfaction may give some negative responses to the work perform or maybe it will affect the productivity. So this study may unwrap the issue regarding the benefits provided by any organizations either they are satisfied or not. So, some necessary move or action may be taken to ensure the organizations fulfill the job satisfaction due to the benefits provided.

For this study purposes, 50 set of the questionnaires were distributed to the workers of the Jaya Jusco organization at Malacca branch.
