OPEN & DISTANCE LEARNING (ODL): THE UNESCO CONCEPT

Education is for all (EFA), not confined to age, ethnicity, gender and social status. adults by year 2015

<https://en.unesco.org/gem-report/report/2015/education-all-2000-2015-achievements-and-challenges>

The EFA, equal education opportunities and lifelong learning cannot be addressed with traditional teaching and learning, old technology and close entry requirement Face to Face (F2F). The OPEN AND DISTANCE LEARNING (ODL) concept may accommodate the UNESCO's global EFA. Teaching and teacher-centered approach supported by old instructional technologies and media need to be replaced by learner-centered supported by online learning pedagogy and technology. The Education system should be open and flexible in terms of entry, technology and pedagogy. Students can learn anywhere, anytime and at their own place not confined to live classroom teaching and synchronous learning materials.
