EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Simply By syaa is one of the companies that produce perfume with a variety of fragrant that was named La Vie en rose. The name of La Vie En Rose was taken from french word where the meaning of that is Life in Pink. We take that name because our target market is female as we believe that many females like pink and perfume is one of the things that we use in our daily life . Moreover, pink is one of the colors that carry out the symbol of softness where it can describe our perfume fragrance that is soft and not too strong.

We choose to produce perfume as we want to make a new fragrance that is different from other perfume. Furthermore, we believe that not so many perfumes have a long lasting smell where it makes our instinct to produce this product stronger as we also experience the same thing with the other female. This company's headquarters is at Petaling Jaya and we do not have any plan to expand our company at recent times.

Our company is a new company that needs to compete with other companies that already existed a long time ago, so we need to make sure that our companies can compete with other companies first before we expand it to other countries and make many branches. Our product not only focuses on physical business but also digital where we have our own website to make sure that other people from other countries can buy it and we will post it to them.
