Praise to Allah SWT, the Lord of the universe, for His wisdom, strength and blessings to complete this project paper. Peace and blessings of Allah upon His Messenger, Nabi Muhammad SAW.

First and foremost, I would like to thank my respectful advisor, Madam Nura Lina binti Md Elias, who has been giving a big help and keep guiding me with great analytical skills, warmth and timely responses during the process of completing this research paper.

My special thanks also goes to my second examiner, Mr. Ainul Fizi bin Ruslan whom had kindly sparing his leisure time to examine this research where I need to fulfil as part of the requirement of my study.

I also wish to convey my warmest thanks to my family for their patience, their co-operation and the non-stop supports from the beginning of this project paper until the end.

Last but not least, my utmost thanks to my friends, especially my group mates who has been helping me a lot during the process of completing this project paper. Despite of their time constraint due to having a project paper to be completed, they always sparing their time to help me understand this research better.

ABSTRACT

The study was conducted in order to find out the significant relationship between the independent variables with the dependent variable. The variables selected are investment choices, risk and return, personal income and individual knowledge. The dependent variable in this study is investment decision among employees. The results of the findings were interpreted using frequency distribution, descriptive statistics (central tendency), reliability test and correlation coefficient. The data collected for the use of the study was collected between the months of February until June 2012. Based on the result, risk and return, personal income and individual knowledge possessed very significant relationship with the dependent variable.
