SAY IT RIGHT: PUBLIC SPEAKING FOR FUTURE LEADERS AT SMK THREE RIVERS

Written by: Cindy Robert, Shirley Clare Jeri, Imelia Laura Daneil, Mohamad Musa Bohari, and Siti Faridah Kamaruddin

On 18 August 2025, the Jelajah Aspirasi Ilmu series made its first stop at SMK Three Rivers with the programme "Say It Right: Public Speaking for Future Leaders". The event, held at Dewan Tom Bazeley from 2.30 p.m. to 4.45 p.m., was organised by the Academy of Language Studies (APB), UiTM Mukah Campus, in collaboration with the Faculty of Computer and Mathematical Sciences and the Study Centre of Business and Management.

The workshop aimed to equip secondary school students with confidence in communication, presentation skills, and English literacy through interactive activities. Thirty Form Four students participated, guided by Miss Shirley Clare, the main speaker for the day. The session combined lively games with structured learning, encouraging students to work in groups to prepare and deliver short presentations. With templates and facilitator support, participants were able to organise their ideas effectively.

To add a competitive spirit, each group selected its best speaker, who then competed for the title of overall best speaker. This not only sharpened their public speaking skills but also nurtured self-confidence and teamwork.

The Say It Right workshop at SMK Three Rivers marked the beginning of a series that continued at SMK St. Patrick on 20 August and SMK Mukah on 21 August. As a whole, the programme highlighted UiTM Mukah Campus' commitment to engaging with the community while inspiring future leaders through education and communication excellence.
