Abstract

This chairlex is specially designed to facilitate and provide comfort to consumers especially students. The designs that was specially made for this chairlex are very suitable and comfortable for continuous use to anyone who uses it. So this chairlex can provide comfort for user as they can learn while resting because the design of the chairlex has a backrest and neck support that is very comfortable and can be changed according to their respective comforts. Most users spend a lot of time in the library to review lessons or to complete the assignment. Therefore, they will often be sick of the neck and backache for too long bending over the book. Hence, these seats are specially designed for those who want comfortable situations when studying the lessons. This is because most of the chairs provided by the library are very uncomfortable for long-term use. This will cause users to feel depressed and lose mood for studying or do some work . So we provide these chairlex to attract consumers and change

This chairlex can be commercially internationally due to its comprehensive use to all aspects of the industry. All consumers are sure to afford to buy even one, it is because the cost to produce this chairlex is not so expensive and the price in the market is very affordable . The sale is not limited. Drastically making it possible to change today's economic problems by promoting it extensively internationally. This chairlex can be used to all libraries especially and others organization.
