Vowing for Global Competence

Anatomy of Advanced Civil Practice Protocol & Advocacy, “Demystifying the Mystical Art of Civil Practice”, by YM Prof. Dato’ Raja Ahmad Mohzanuddin Shah Raja Mohzan

The third season of UiTMLaw Civil Litigation Workshop titled Anatomy of Advanced Civil Practice Protocol & Advocacy “Demystifying the Mystical Art of Civil Practice” is part of the Academic Excellence Series: Beyond the Classroom, a series of online initiatives which aims to provide the UiTMLaw final year students with invaluable exposure and first-hand knowledge on matters relating to civil litigation from pre-trial procedures to the ins and outs of appellate advocacy.

The sessions were conducted between November 2021 and January 2022 with the guidance of the learned and vastly experienced UiTMLaw Adjunct Professor, YM Prof. Dato’ Raja Ahmad Mohzanuddin Shah Raja Mohzan. The Dean and UiTMLaw family are truly grateful and would like to thank YM Prof. Raja Dato’ Mohzanuddin Shah Raja Mohzan for his outstanding contribution and dedication.

Adjunct Professor Lecture on the Application of Ijtihad within the Syariah Courts

On 7 July 2022, UiTMLaw hosted the annual Adjunct Professor Lecture Series and featured YAA Dato’ Mohammad Adib Bin Husain, the Chief Syarie Judge of the Selangor State Sharia Justice Department. At the auspicious event, YAA Dato’ presented a lecture entitled “The Application of Ijtihad within the Syariah Courts”, which was held via the Zoom online platform.

This lecture highlights the concept of ijtihad practised in the Syariah Court and the Importance of understanding such a concept among judges, especially in the field of Sharia law in Malaysia. At the end of the lecture, YAA Dato’ concluded that the judge’s ijtihad is an essential pillar within the Sharia Legal Framework to promote the development of law and legislation. Although laws have been gazetted, there are still areas of ijtihad that judges can implement. The results of this judge’s ijtihad would benefit the development of religion, law and the welfare of society.
