CIArb Book Launch – ‘A Brand New World: The Evolution and Future of Arbitration’, 19 November 2019

Dr. Shahrizal M Zin FCIArb was invited to attend and speak at the CIArb book launch event hosted at Bentham House by the University College London (UCL) on 19 November 2019. The book is a belated celebration of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (CIArb) first hundred years of establishment. The launch of CIArb's new book was highly successful where over 130 attendees, including students and practitioners, enjoyed hearing directly from two panels of authors as well as the editors. Dr. Shahrizal M Zin FCIArb spoke on the intersection between culture and arbitration. He has contributed a chapter entitled 'Setting the Stage for a New Century: Global Arbitration in the Making.' In this chapter, he observed how growing domestic legislative developments on international arbitration have affected legal culture in many jurisdictions.
