CHAPTER 2: SCHEDULE OF PRACTICAL TRAINING

2.0 Introduction

In this chapter, we have to extract all the contents that we had written on the log book during our practical training with more systematic and easy to be read and understood. It includes the description of tasks executed during our practical training within 2 months.

2.1 Objectives of Practical Training

There have several objectives in the practical training that are:

- I) reveal the real job to the students. I can get the experienced and know the differentiation between the jobs that are more complex than studies in university.
- II) The students can relate the theory they learned by using practical in the workplace. The knowledge that student learned in the class will be no functions to themselves if they are not practically the knowledge that they are learned.
- III) To enhance the teamwork and good relationship between student and the employees. The students can learned more things about the communication skills in the workplace. The communication skills actually very different especially in the outside of university because
