GREEN DAY 2025

Author: Noreena binti Md Yusoff

PUNCAK ALAM, AUGUST 8 & 9, 2025 - The Green Day 2025 program was successfully organized by the Association of Professional Accounting Students (APAcS) 2024/2025 and the Department of Professional Accounting Studies (DPAS) on August 8 and 9, 2025, at Menara SAAS, UiTM Shah Alam.

This initiative aimed to promote a cleaner, healthier, and more sustainable environment for the faculty. Activities conducted over the two days included the collection of recyclables such as paper, plastics, and bottles at designated locations, as well as a faculty wide cleanup session involving students, lecturers, and staff.

Overall, the Green Day 2025 program was a success, effectively raising environmental awareness, instilling responsible habits, and strengthening the bond between students and faculty staff.

'WASTE TO WEALTH' AWARENESS PROGRAM

Author: Noreena binti Md Yusoff

PUNCAK ALAM, OCTOBER 10, 2025 - Waste to Wealth Program: From Waste to Value aimed to enhance students' awareness and skills regarding sustainable waste management, emphasizing that waste holds economic value. The event involved approximately 180 students (Year 1 to Year 6) from SK Sultan Abdul Aziz, Kampung Kuantan.

The activities conducted included exposure to the 5 Principles of Zero Waste (Refuse, Reduce, Reuse, Recycle, Compost) and demonstrations on creating products from repurposed materials, such as producing soap from used cooking oil. The program was a success, delivering a positive impact and inspiring the majority of students to adopt zero-waste practices both at home and at school.
