EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

My experience working as a human resources intern at Iskandar Investment Berhad (IIB), a major contributor to Johor's economic development through partnerships and strategic investments, is detailed in this industrial training report. I learned about a variety of HR tasks during my internship, such as hiring, employee engagement, training and development, and support with administration. My knowledge of corporate HR procedures and workplace dynamics was improved by the chance I had to help with onboarding session organization, employee record update, and internal HR projects. The course greatly aided in my professional development and prepared me for future HR positions by offering insightful information on the strategic role HR plays in coordinating talent management with company objectives.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I want to start by sincerely thanking Iskandar Investment Berhad (IIB) for giving me the chance to complete my industrial training in the People & Culture Department. I would especially like to thank Ms. Kemmy Tan, my previous supervisor and Mr Abdul Aziz Jameran, my current supervisor, for their steadfast support, insightful criticism, and ongoing mentoring during the training term. My educational journey has been greatly influenced by their advice and support.

I also want to express my sincere gratitude to all of my coworkers at IIB who made me feel very welcome and helped me adjust to the work atmosphere. My internship experience was tremendously enhanced by their generosity, collaboration, and knowledge sharing.

Finally, I would like to express my gratitude to En. Fadli Dali, my academic advisor, for his unwavering guidance, inspiration, and assistance from the start of my internship to the completion of this report. His guidance has been really helpful to me in maintaining my concentration and academic alignment.
