CONCLUSION

I would like to thank Kabuloh Agriculture Research Station for giving me chance to finish my industrial practical at their station . I started to realized that working under an organization is not easy to go through . After 3 months spending my time for industrial training here,one most importance thing that i learned is communication . We need a very good communication with each other to have a good result in our work . Communication lead us to a great teamwork with our partners .

Staying in Kabuloh Agriculture Research Station for 3 months had me learned about many things that is new for me . It is so much fun and meaningful experiences that i can practice all the thing I had learn in theory from my first semester as an agriculture student . I wish to learn about this again in future . I will surely share the knowledge that i got from here during my internship program with peoples . I will let them know that Kabuloh Agriculture Research Station one of the great place for industrial practical . It is because all the staff there is so friendly and loved to help each other . Besides, we also can learn so much new things here.

My sincerely thanks for all people who involved directly or indirectly helping me finishing my industrial training . I will make sure all of your effort in helping me will always be remembered and appreciated by me . Thank you.
