EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

This report highlights my industrial training experience at Amanah Saham Nasional Berhad (ASNB) in Seremban. ASNB, a unit trust company under Permodalan Nasional Berhad (PNB), is well known for its flagship fixed-price fund, Amanah Saham Bumiputera (ASB), which is widely favored by Malaysian Bumiputera investors.

Throughout the internship, I was exposed to both back-office and front-office operations under the guidance of my supervisor. The variety of tasks assigned to me provided valuable hands-on experience that has significantly contributed to my professional growth.

The report also reflects the positive and supportive work culture at ASNB Seremban. From the dedicated staff to the friendly cleaner and security personnel, the collaborative environment greatly enhanced my learning journey.

Overall, this internship offered an excellent opportunity to develop practical skills and insights into the financial industry. I strongly recommend it to students looking for meaningful industry exposure before entering the workforce.
