1.1 Company Background

The Department of Agriculture Sabah (Figure 1.1) has officially existed as a separate entity since November 1946. In the early stages, the Sabah Agriculture Department is also responsible for the affairs of the animal husbandry enterprise and fisheries. After Sabah achieved independence, several separate departments and agencies were established under the Ministry of Agriculture and Food Industry to address other areas and certain aspects in relation to the development of the crop Agriculture Department is among several Departments and Agencies under this Ministry. Integrated Agriculture Training Center (IATC) is under the Department of Agriculture Sabah. It is one of their services in the department. IATC is training farmers or individuals who are interested in exploring the agricultural sector to increase their knowledge and skills. The skill certificates are provided for those who take part in IATC.
