Welcome New Students Semester October 2022

About 1300 new postgraduate students were welcome with our warm hospitality. A brief introduction about campuses and rules as well as regulation was delivered in Induction Day session which presented by all new students locally and internationally. A warm welcome by the Dean of IPSis and followed by briefing related to process and procedure by IPSis management team.

This was not only limited to wishes and online briefing, it's also involve our personal touch with international new students by inviting them from quarantine center to their accommodation.

To all new postgraduate students, welcome and wish you all the best
