Executive Summary

This report highlights the experience gained from the industrial training at Agora Technology, a company that offers technology solutions, system installations, and support services to the governmental and institutional sectors. The duration of the internship allowed the trainee to gain appropriate knowledge about the working environment of the company, thereby creating an awareness about the technical and administrative aspects of the working activities.

During the training, the trainee was engaged in various routine activities, such as helping with technical work on site, handling equipment and materials, and helping with logistics and communication with the concerned offices to complete the documentation and formalities.

The training experience was also very important for the development of required skills in the areas of teamwork, time management, flexibility, and problem-solving skills. Familiarization with the actual working conditions was also important for the improvement of knowledge and preparedness to face industry standards. In conclusion, the industrial training experience was very effective in bridging the gap between theoretical knowledge and practical experience and provided relevant knowledge about professional practices in the technology services field.

Acknowledgement

First and foremost, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Allah SWT for giving me the strength, health, and patience to successfully finish this report. I would also like to extend my deepest appreciation to all individuals who have contributed directly and indirectly to the successful completion of my industrial training and this report.

I would like to extend my sincere appreciation to my industrial supervisor as well as all staff members of the organization for their cooperation, support, and valuable advice that have greatly enhanced my learning experience and working knowledge of the real working environment. My sincere appreciation also goes to my academic supervisor as well as all lecturers for their guidance, encouragement, and valuable advice that have greatly helped me to improve the quality of my work in preparing this report.

Lastly, I would like to extend my sincere appreciation to my family and friends for their moral support, motivation, and encouragement throughout my journey. Without the support from all parties involved, the successful completion of this report would not have been possible.
