Vowing for Global Competence

2nd UiTM International Conference on Law & Society 2022 (UiTM i-CLaS 2022)

On 1st and 2nd of November 2022 the Faculty of Law, Universiti Teknologi MARA (UiTM) in collaboration with the Universitas Gadjah Mada, Indonesia, Universitas Pelita Harapan, Indonesia, Universitas Airlangga, Indonesia, Universitas Islam Bandung, Indonesia, Universitas Trisakti, Indonesia, and Islamic University Maldives had successfully organised the 2nd UiTM International Conference on Law & Society 2022 (UiTM i-CLaS 2022). The conference was continued virtually as the world is in the phase of moving to the era of endemic. The gatherings of academicians and professionals, in academic meetings like conferences, will assist the development of their careers and knowledge. It also helps in updating the attendees on the latest global development and how people in the legal fraternity adapt to these changes. This conference serves as a platform to foster collaboration of national and international partnerships and to aid our legal education system to integrate with the development within the legal industry. The faculty is proud to be able to organise the second series of this virtual international conference that provides an international forum for all to share experiences, knowledge, and innovation, encourage the flourishing of intellectual development, and provide opportunities for networking and collaboration in a multi-disciplinary platform. The nucleus of all research papers presented at this conference is based on the theme of "Dynamism of Law in the Race of the 21st century Society" which suit the current scenario.
