DISCUSSION ON ISLAMIC DEVELOPMENT

Islamic cultural Centre, London

The Islamic Cultural Centre is a centre for Muslims located in London, England, opened in 1944. It is part of the London Central Mosque, having been annexed. It campaigns on behalf of British Muslims to government, local authorities and official bodies on issues such as health, welfare and education, among others. Other than marriage advice services, family and funeral services, the biggest task is education which includes Arabic courses, Youth Education Programme, Introduction to Islam and Islamic quarterly. Like Islamic Religious Council from Federal Territory (Majlis Agama Islam Wilayah Persekutuan), these are also part of activities and responsibilities for them. The discussions went from sharing experience and learning from each other, improve their services which are beneficial for both parties. They also intend to extend their collaboration further in the future. A total of six (6) participants attended this discussion; Mohamad Nazrol bin Moktar, Mohd Saiful bin Mohd Soid, Mohd Rafie bin Zakaria, Wan Maizatun binti Wan Hassan and Suwaibah binti Romli from Majlis Agama Islam Wilayah Persekutuan (MAIWP) and Dr Dalila Daud from Accounting Research Institute (ARI).
