EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The researchers were on an industrial training at CBC Resources Sdn. Bhd. from 1 April 2026 to 17 July 2026. As of now, the researcher has witnessed firsthand the practical application of theoretical knowledge and developed a thorough understanding of the workings of the organization. The researcher has assisted the administrative support department and operations department in issues related to paper work, meetings and clients. Through practical work at CBC resources, the researcher has become more professionally oriented towards communication, organizing and customer care. Personally, the researcher gained immense benefit from the professional development and mentoring provided by CBC Resources. This was indeed a very beneficial internship since most of the training was experience based. Overall, this experience proved to be beneficial as it provided the researcher with invaluable perspectives and skills.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost, the researcher thanks Almighty God for His blessings and guidance in preparing this internship report. As a special thank you to my supervisors, Puan Nor Azizah and Miss Pavitra, and to the staff of CBC Resources Sdn. Bhd, for allowing the researcher to undertake a four-month industrial training. Their guidance and support have made the researcher a better-trained individual in how to think and work in practice.

In addition, the researcher would like to thank her advisor, Miss Afrah Hayati binti Abdul Rahman, for her unwavering guidance and advice during the preparation of this report. The researcher really appreciates her help and her constant encouragement.

Lastly, the researcher is also thankful to parents and friends for their prayers, moral advice, and positive suggestions to me in preparing this paper. Their knowledge and support were very important in assisting me to complete the research work. Also, the researcher is thankful to Universiti Teknologi MARA for allowing the researcher to undertake this professional study, which has filled the researcher with confidence, and the researcher very much looks forward to a career post-graduation.
