ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Assalamualaikum W.B.T.....

In the name of our Creator, Allah S.W.T, may it please Him that we express our appreciation to our family who had never stop giving us support and understanding to continue this humble mission.

Our warmest appreciation and gratitude to Prof. Ibrahim bin Lamat our Supervisor for his guidance, advice, supports, and knowledge that is beneficial for us to complete this research.

Very special thanks to Pn. Siti Hafsyah Idris as our Lecturer for Legal Research and Methodology LAW 557 for her thoughtful initial support, sharing information and co-operations that given to us in order to complete our research.

Nevertheless a very special thank to our Interviewer who is Prof. Dr Aziz Bari from UIAM and Mr Mohd Sujairi from Public Relations Officer of Parliament for their cooperation in giving valuable information to us in completing this research.

To our parents that from time to time keep giving us support to complete this research project. Beside the moral support that they gave to us, we also rely to them financially and thank you for the contribution as we do not think we able to complete this task without their support.

Special thank you to whom which indirectly involved and to our group members (Nor Akhmal Hasmin, Nurul Khairiah Dahalaan and Nurulyani Norzari) for their commitment, dedication and contribution in making this task easier, in spite of all the barriers we face along the way.

Lastly, we hope that this report will cover the entire requirement that is needed to complete this research and positively accept by all sides.

Wallau-a'lam.

“We had try our best, we hope that success will come to surprise us, because it never failed anyone yet, so far”

Insyallah

Abstract

Dewan Negara is one of the legislative bodies which are responsible for law making process in our Parliament. It is a body for a matured deliberation and to avoid tyranny of a single house. However the Dewan Negara had deviate from its original roles. This is happen because of the occurrence of problem relating to rubber stamp legislature. Due to this, we had come out with this research that focusing on the factors which contribute to the problem of rubber stamp legislature. Besides that, we are also providing the recommendation on how to overcome this problem. By having this research, we hope that there is a change in the Dewan Negara to enhance its effectiveness. Therefore the law will truly represent the interest of the public.
