First and foremost we would like to express the deepest gratitude to our supportive supervisor for this research, Dr. Tunku Intan Mainura binti Tunku Makmar Nizamuddin for her endless guidance and support in helping us to complete this research paper and make it a reality. Our endless thanks also goes to our parents, brothers and sisters for their love and support throughout the course of completing this project. Besides that, we would also like to extend our gratitude to our librarian for their time and indulgence in sharing their skill and knowledge to help us in searching for relevant journals and sources from the library access to accomplish this project. Our appreciation also goes to every person who gave us something to light our pathway and believing in us. Finally, it will be a great achievement if this research could be a useful tool to other researchers who intend to pursue their research in this area. We hope that this research will benefit others in the future in any way.

This research project has been carried out by a team which has included Nur Afiqah binti Nordin, Siti Qistina binti Azmi, Nur Alwani binti Mohd Zulhaini, and Raja Syuhadah Nur Hasannah binti Raja Ismail.

ABSTRACT

This research is about homelessness issue in Malaysia. Our topic is a comparative study on homeless people in Malaysia and UK. This means we compare the law between these two country and we look at how to improve the existing law in Malaysia. Homelessness is not the stereotype like what people think, there are much more factors that causing this issue to arise. There is much more behind the sad faces that people see on the streets. Homelessness is a critical issue that requires everyone's attention. Hundreds of thousands of homeless people live on the streets as their shelter. The objective of our research is to compare the laws regarding homelessness issue in the UK and in Malaysia itself. By doing this research, we have identified the key issues and what can be improvised in coping with this matter.

In conclusion, in coping with this issue that has become more serious year by year, a new interventions and policy is needed to prevent homelessness.
