ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We would like to express our deepest gratitude to all those who gave us the means to complete this research paper. We want to thank the Faculty of Law, Universiti Teknologi Mara for giving us the permission to commence this research paper in first instance.

We have furthermore to thank Puan Su'aida Dato' Haji Safei our supervisor for her undying support, patience, endurance and more importantly supervision towards the completion of this project paper. Without her guidance and encouragement we would not have been able to finalise this research as we have now.

Many thanks to teammates who have worked hard for the past two semesters to collect all the information and conduct the research on Family Court.
