EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

With the name of Allah , Most Gracious , Most Merciful

Alhamdulillah and thank you to Allah S.W.T for giving us the chance and ability to complete this business proposal.

Well known , there are many challenges in the business world. Only the strong will survive .It is not easy to enter into this field and see our effort can make a good return , but through good preparation in all department we are really confident with our business.

We know , every business needs a good set of management to ensure the business can run well. We believes in business , no one can run from responsible. Regardless who they are , either he a general manager or only general worker , they must alert all of their action will give effect to the business.

With systematic planning , besides our support given by our workers , we are confident our business can standing in the eyes of business world in the future. Although we have to face a lot of barriers when we running the business, with our spirit and full commitment we will do our best to make our mission real.
