Not only that, our employees are also trained and experienced employees. For your information, this popia is very special because Carbonara gravy is used as the main of the popia. When it comes to uniqueness, we must have very superior assumptions on the taste side. We also saw some comments about this popia and its several constructive comment. What is in the Carbonara gravy? There were carrots and sausages as stuffing. As for the flavour, Carbonara itself is customary because it is Preggo-style (or maybe Preggo-style) and a bit sick. The uniqueness is not in the taste only in the popia idea. What is unique about this popia carbonara cheese, the core is black mushrooms, sausages, potatoes, meat & cheese. Our popia carbonara popia cheese will not melt if fried because we will cook the ingredients first. Eating a lot of food still does not make you sick.
