ABSTRACT

This report is divided into four sections; background of the organization, background of departments, Industrial Training Activities and Industrial Training Reflection. This industrial training is one of the requirements for all UiTM students. The main objective of this industrial training is to give students exposure to a real industrial environment. Industrial training gives students the opportunity to practice the knowledge and skills learned while studying and also to evaluate student's performance in terms of their capability, skill, quality, creativity and ability to solve problems.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

My greatest gratitude to Allah S.W.T, the Grandest and Almighty, Most Gracious and the Most Merciful for giving me the chance, time and ability to perform this study and for all the chances He has given to me until now. My greatest gratitude to Prophet Muhammad S.A.W for the teachings and love that he has spread to the whole world.

Foremost I would like to thank my UniKL Library supervisor, Ms Emeliza Md Lani, Mr. Mohd Kamal Mohd Yusoff and Mr. Khairul Anwar Husaini for their meaningful contribution in this task, the contribution and effort in providing guidance and constructive suggestions performing to this task. I would like to express my sincere appreciation to all staff at Universiti Kuala Lumpur Library and Resource Center City Campus, for assisting some of the works that related also for the understanding and support she has given. Specials thank to my industrial training supervisor Sir Mohd Ridzuan Ibrahim for his helping, guiding, and advising me to make this report. Last but not least, to everyone who has in one way or another contributed to the success of my industrial training, thank you very much.
