Acknowledgement

I want to say thank you to my lecturer that teach this course, Principles of Entrepreneurship (ENT530), Madam for giving a chance in writing this assignment. Without the help of the lecturer, I could never this best in my assignment. The lecturer has provided many things for us in making us understand how to do this assignment such as she gives us an advice and her own opinion about our project that we will make.

It also because of the help of my friends and my classmates that my project is a success. With their help in giving opinion of my project, I can know what its need in making the project a success and complete this assignment without worries.

I also want to show my gratitude to my parents as they were the one who support me the most during this time in completing my assignment. They give me full support on what I want to do for this assignment and that help me a lot.

Executive Summary

Love Crochet is a new proprietorship that operated in Malaysia. The name of the company is obtained from the product that we sold which is the crocheting products.

Our company sells the materials for the crocheting such as yarn and hook. We also sell ready-made of the crocheting product. We open this company because there are not many companies that sells this kind of item, so we like to challenge ourself in this industry whether it can bring profit and make an income for the company. We also like to see the reaction of the people whether this product can be accepted by them and make them take interest toward this product.

Our target market can be various kind of people as the product that we sold can be used and wear from a baby to an adult. So, our range of target market is quite large. We also target oriented-family as they can wear our product with matching design and color. We also make some offer to some of our product to attract new customer in surveying and buying our product.

We hope that our product can attract more new customers so that this product can be known by other people and spread to other countries. We also hope that our product can be one of the favorite products that the Malaysians like to use.
