Greetings, everyone. This issue is presented to you with many interesting news and contributions. Despite their never-ending workload and personal commitments, our department staff never cease to amazingly show their passion and creativity in their writing. Thank you for that. We wish you 'HAPPY READING' and do continue to contribute to our future issues.

The Academy of Language Studies (ALS) would like to congratulate Associate Professor Dr. Rofiza Aboo Bakar on her promotion to DM54. It is highly earned and well deserved. We are proud of you, Dr.! May Allah continue to bless you as you move forward in your career.

ALS would like to extend our deepest appreciation to Madam Er Ann Nah and Associate Professor Dr. Rushita Ismail for their utmost commitment all these years in helping ALS move forward. Madam Er Ann Nah retired on 1st April 2022 while Assoc. Prof. Dr. Rushita will retire on 27th June this year. We will always miss your presence here. We wish you both a great life ahead and hope you get to experience all the adventures you wanted to after retirement.

ALS also wishes all the best to Madam Farina Nozakiah Tazijan who has now joined ALS, UiTM Shah Alam. Thank you for the support and goodwill you have shown over the years. These memories are ones that we will never forget. We appreciate all your hard work, and we hope you will continue to succeed in the future.

ALS UiTM Cawangan Pulau Pinang welcomes a new member, Dr. Nur Husna Serip Mohamad. We are delighted to have you among us. Your remarkable skills will be a great addition to our team.
