ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In the name of Alah, the most gracious and the most merciful for without Him, it is impossible for me to finish up my thesis and delivering this final report in time.

I personally would like to deliver my special thanks to the owner and manager of Shah's Resorts, Dato' HM Shah and Mr. Aminudin Baki who have given fully support and trust throughout completing "Hotel Web Design for Marketing Purpose" thesis.

Special thanks also to Madam Rozianawaty bt Osman, who have spent her time, patience, dedications, and also for her guidance in completing this report. She has also been contributing so many ideas for this thesis and brings this thesis to become a reality. This thesis would mean nothing without her support and encouragement.

To my family, mom, dad and all of my siblings, thanks a lot for your support, guidance, sponsorship, understanding and also for rising me up. Everything you have done is the requisite in finishing and completing this job. To Miss Mimmie Melissa, thank you for your everlasting support. Thanks a lot.

Last but not least, I would like to deliver my thanks to all of my friends especially Mr. Safareen and all other parties or individual who are not mentioned here.

May Allah bless all of us.

ABSTRACT

Today's world of globalization creates the opportunity for e-commerce as a huge marketing opportunity with the boundary-less market. Hotel industry is one of the industries that have been affected with the growth of internet user through online reservation. Therefore, a web presence is required for the hotels that want to enter the new market. However, a strong web presence is required to make the website really effective in creating online revenue. Thus, the hotel web marketing principles is the key to help hoteliers improve their online revenue. The objective of this research is to redesign a hotel website using hotel web marketing principles and to identify the effectiveness of the implementation of hotel website using the principles. The results indicate that the implementation of the hotel web marketing principles can boost up page visits, Search Engine Optimization that makes the hotel more marketable. The result also indicates that the new redesigned hotel also has entered the main marketing channel that is search engine. This thesis also provides several recommendations in order to improve hotel web marketing and for a better research in the future.
