First and foremost, thank to the Almighty ALLAH SWT for giving me strength and opportunity to write and complete this research.

I wish to express my greatest sincere to my advisor, En.Mohammad Jais bin Atan for being very patient, helping me to get some idea regarding my topic and his invaluable advise and encouragement.

Special gratitude to my beloved family who has encourages and gives support to me from the beginning in every possible way.

Last but not least, to my Mohamad Nursham and my entire friend, thanks for your kindness, helpfulness, happiness and understanding to make me complete this thesis successfully.

I do hope that this thesis will give benefits to the students in the future.

ABSTRACT

This project paper studies on the economic crisis that hit Malaysia on July 1997 and the actions taken by the government to recover the economy from the crisis.

The objective of the study is to look on how bad the economy was affected by the crisis.

It also looks on whether Malaysia had recovered or not its economy.

The data was collected from the Economic Recovery Plan implemented by the National Economic Action Council (NEAC).
