ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Bismillahirrahmanirrahim....

Praise be to The Al-Mighty Allah SWT, the most exalted whose mercy and blessing have enable me to complete this graduate project paper.

First and foremost, I would like to express my warmest gratitude to my respectable advisor Mr. Sohail Gayas Mirza, for his encouragement, comments and guidance throughout the preparation of the project.

A very special regards and thanks to my most beloved parents, En. Abdul Rahman Ahmad and Pn. Rahimah Abdullah and also not to forget my family members for their utmost blessings, full understanding and love.

Finally, I wish to thank the librarians of MIDA, MITI, UiTM Machang Library, Kelantan National Library, my boss and all my friends who provided support and contribution during the preparation of the paper. May Allah reward them accordingly.

Last but not least to Azraan Anuar, thanks for everything.

ABSTRACT

Foreign Direct Investment (FDI), an inflow of capital and new technology is regarded as an important factor for the growth and industrial development of a country.

The purpose of this study is to analyze the relationship between FDI inflow and its impact on the production level of selected sector; Electrical & Electronic Products, Wood & Wood Products, Transport Equipment and Food Manufacturing.

This study uses a sample of twelve years data over the period from 1989 to 2001. The analysis is done by using simple regression analysis on the four selected models. The study also focuses on the trends of FDI in flow between 1989 to 2001.
