A Memorandum of Understanding was sealed in July 2021 between Universiti Teknologi MARA and Universitas Pahlawan Tuanku Tambusai, Indonesia, establishing friendship and cooperation, promotion of mutual understanding, academic, cultural and scientific thoughts and personnel exchange. This is the first MOU initiated by the Academy of Language Studies, UiTM Cawangan Negeri Sembilan, Kuala Pilah Campus earlier this year.

Universitas Pahlawan Tuanku Tambusai is an established university that strives to strengthen its research and educational abilities and has entered into various collaborative arrangements with other universities to enhance its academic links and cooperation.

The aim of this partnership is to strengthen, promote and develop academic, cultural and research cooperation between both parties on the basis of equality and mutual benefit. Some of the activities agreed upon include creating collaboration in research projects and identifying and bidding for national and international research grants of mutual interest in Science & Technology, Social Sciences and other areas. In addition, this partnership will provide a platform for joint supervision and student mobility and exchanging of information pertaining to developments in teaching, student development and research institutions.

The MOU will benefit the students and academic staff of Universiti Teknologi MARA and Universitas Pahlawan Tuanku Tambusai, as it allows both students and the academic staff to gain knowledge, experience and exposure through the mobility programs and joint supervisions, as well as through the sharing of knowledge and expertise in teaching and learning.
