ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Alhamdulillah, thanks to Allah, the Most Gracious and Merciful, for allowing me to embark on this journey and to see it through to the end. This work would not have been completed without the generous and unreserved assistance of a few individuals to whom I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude. To begin, I wish to thank my supervisors, Associate Professor Dr Nawal Kasim and Professor Dr Roshayani Arshad, for their continuous guidance, unwavering motivation, and incessant support throughout this research work. Throughout the years, both of them have been a constant source of inspiration by offering thought-provoking ideas and insights. I will never forget and will always be thankful for the amount of time and patience dedicated to me and this research work.

I would also like to convey my gratitude to the International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM) and the Ministry of Higher Education for providing financial assistance during my studies. Next, my utmost appreciation goes to Majlis Agama Islam Selangor (MAIS), especially their Social Management Services Division (SMSD), the NGO-is and Accounting Research Institute (ARI), its fellows, administrative staff, peers, and everyone who was directly or indirectly involved in this research work. Last but not least, and most importantly, I am indebted to Muhammad Sufi, my loving husband, my two understanding children, Sumayyah and Saqif, my mother, Hanim, my late father, Abd Rahim, my parents-in-law, Mazli and Amizah, and other members of my beloved family. These are the people whose unwavering encouragement has been invaluable over the last several years. Not to mention my PhD buddies, Hamizah and Shikin, who have made this PhD journey more interesting and less lonely. Thank you a plenty. May Allah shower you with His greatest blessings.

Finally, I must thank myself for not giving up and persevering to the end. This journey is well worth the effort! Thank you, Allah, alhamdulillah.
