ABSTRACT

Are you looking for educational materials? V Focus Sky Solution's PDPC is compatible with 21st century education. It provides latest syllabus such as KSSR, KSSM and MPEI. It contains all subjects inside. V Focus Sky Solution applies beautiful design, pictures, attractive videos and understandable I-Think Map to attach students' attention. As we are fighting against the COVID-19 outbreak, all the schools have been closed. To support Movement Control Order (MCO) during this critical period, V Focus Sky Solution had been providing free online education for both teachers and students during MCO period. As the time change, V Focus Sky Solution has come out an online version, especially for students. The Login Page is just like Facebook. After login, you can choose the subject and topic you want. From here, students can review back what they have learnt in the school anytime, anywhere. The Ministry of Education is now vigorously encouraging the use of Google Classroom for online education. Teacher can prepare the slides of V Focus Sky Solution in the Classwork and schedule the date to post, where the students also have the benefit to access the slide as well. There will be some questions and assessment which can be assigned to the students. By this way, teacher can monitor the progress of students, and consequently, will lead to more participation and interaction between teachers and students in Google Classroom.

Keyword: educational material

1. INTRODUCTION

V Focus Sky Solution's PDPC is compatible with 21st century education. It provides latest syllabus such as KSSR, KSSM and MPEI. It contains all subjects inside. Interesting, one of the factors that is lost in education nowadays. There are many people who wish to learn but not to study. V Focus Sky Solution applies beautiful design, pictures, attractive videos and understandable I-Think Map to attach students' attention. Moreover, V Focus Sky Solution not only provide for the information from textbooks, and also the exercises which is not inferior than other reference books. Students can study and do revision anytime and anywhere by just getting into google classroom to see the classwork materials.

2. PROBLEM

2.1. Boring

Interesting, one of the factors that is lost in education nowadays. There are many people who wish to learn but not to study. Need to make them knowledgeable but they get lagged due to their marks. It should be made as much as fun to study.

2.2. The Way of Teaching is Similar to Punishment

It's like an punishment to go to school and complete homework. Anyone who don't finish the homework will be scolded. This is not learning. Society discriminates people based on their marks.

3. SOLVE PROBLEM

3.1. Making Study Fun

V Focus Sky Solution applies beautiful design, pictures, attractive videos and understandable I-Think Map to attach students' attention.

3.2. Offer Free Learning Chances

At the last online version, all students and teachers need to buy the copyright per year so that they can watch the slides. But, during the pandemic period, some of the families are facing economic problems. They can't afford the payment for every child. So, V Focus Sky Solution offers the copyright for those who have pay the money to share in Google Classroom.

4. HOW ITS FUNCTION?

4.1 For Student

After click into RBT FORM 2 2020, we click again into CLASSWORK and show the MATERIAL as Figure 1.

4.2. For Teacher

Firstly, switch to the (Classwork). Click (+ Create) then select (Material). Secondly, open the Notepad named (GoogleClassroom) provided and copy the title of the topic into Title in the (Material). Thirdly, click (Add), then select (Link). From the Notepad named (GoogleClassroom), copy the link which identical with the topic you are creating and paste it to the field and click (Add link).Fifthly, go to the group title in one folder, click on the pull down arrow under (“Topic”) as shown and select (“Create topic”), then type in the name of the folder. Sixthly, you can fix which topic you want to post to students according to your own timetable using (“Schedule”) under (Post).Seventhly, for initial setup, we will advise teacher set it on (31st December) then click on (Schedule). Then, the first topic will appear under ("Classwork"). As this topic has been scheduled in future date, the students are not able to see this until it has been posted. Ninthly, now teacher can do preparation one day earlier to reschedule the date and time to post the topic to the students according to their timetable. Click on (three dots) and select ("Edit"). Tenthly, click on the pull down arrow as shown and select the date and time that you want to post, then click on (Schedule).

5. QUALITY

The tutorial inside contains syllabus such as KSSM, KSSR and MPEI. V Focus Sky Solution provides pleasing picture, attractive video and understandable. I-Think Map to catch students' attention. All notes have been transferred into V Focus Sky Solution. The cost is reasonable and affordable. As an example, one reference book costs RM 20, but you have more than 7 subjects. V Focus Sky Solution contains all subjects in a package and only cost us RM 120 per year. Last time it cost us RM180 per year. By contrast, it really is a good deal. Moreover, V Focus Sky Solution not only provide for the information from textbooks, and also the exercises which is not inferior to other reference books. Pointer is provided so the students can see clearer when teacher is teaching.

6. BENEFITS

Students can study anytime and anywhere by just clicking in google class. Economy problem can be solve because the students only need to open in google classroom. All teachers can use this program to teach the students when they are having google meet. The price is reasonable than other exercise books.
