

Haiku

Life

by Dr Nur Ilianis Adnan

Walk and breathe slowly
Hug and kiss the air around
Take a quiet break

When the sky is dark
The moon and stars are aligned Wait for the magic

Hush hush your own words
For they will snatch your peace
And gifted you pain

Close your pretty eyes
Bring along your mind and soul
To your sacred place

Hush! Tick tock tick tock
Listen to the beat of the Time passing by fast

Thousands of my steps
Move to a thousand places
Yet, still fixated
