

JEWELRY BOX

MALAYSIAN ARCHITECTURE

Malaysian architecture is a complex fusion of Islamic style, colonial rule, and Asian traditions, best seen in Kuala Lumpur, the country's capital and largest metropolis. Malaysia's design frequently works with mediating internal and external space because of the country's humid island environment.