ABSTRACT

The objective of this module is to give opportunity for users to deepen their knowledge about Islamic fundamentals and principle pertaining to marriage by attending courses through Internet. It also assist the newly-wed Muslim couples to adjust and cope with the early or initial challenges of married life. The conventional courses have been conducted by 'Ustaz', 'Ustazah' and 'Ulama' around Malaysia. Distance learning for pre marital course is an interactive module that will provide a reference material from 'Jabatan Agama Islam'. Users can interact with this module interactively and submit any question that are related to the topic from 'Jabatan Agama Islam'. This module will provide users with the related current issues regarding to the marriage. This module will be developed by using Web based concept. Dynamic HTML pages such as search by keyword, quiz online and question and answer session. Firstly this module will help Muslims to be more conscious towards their plan to get married. In order to fulfill the criteria as Muslims family, Muslim should follow as an example shown by the prophet (peace be upon him). Secondly, the module will be able to help users to attend marriage through Internet without going through particular private courses. This module is written in Bahasa Malaysia.
