ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Finishing this research was a challenging task for us. However, we had the assistance of many parties who have made this assignment a realization. All parties elaborate in the completion of this research kept us driven and on the course during all those moments' when things didn't go as scheduled. We would like to express thank you to our supervisor, Dr Mazlan Che Soh who educated us on many things about research. We learn an important lesson about research in action. Things didn't go as expected or planned. We must make alterations, but these adjustments must be justified and qualified. Thank you for the support in assisting us with this task. Our appreciation goes to the lecturers ADS555 who had collectively the knowledge and assistance. Special thanks to my partners and friends for aiding us with this project. Finally, this thesis is dedicated to our family for the vision and determination to educate us. This piece of success is dedicated to both of you, mum, and dad. Alhamdulillah, we would like to thank God Almighty without whose blessings we will not have successfully accomplished this study

ABSTRACT

This research study aims to examine the impacts of Covid-19 towards academic performance of students in UiTM Seremban students. The study was conducted by using a quantitative approach. Under this quantitative approach, the students will be given a questionnaire which divides into five (5) sections. The questionnaire also consists of the Linkert Scale range from 1 (Strongly Disagree) to 5 (Strongly Agree). Also, these two Linkert scales were used by researchers is allowed to find the personality traits of the individual. Besides, there are about 305 of the total respondents of this study, and the researcher had used a convenience sampling technique as a method to find the respondents. Furthermore, the researcher also using SPSS version 25 to find the result or findings of the study. The results illustrate is to show the relationship between the three types of independent variables (studying hour, availability of Internet, and learning environment) that give an impact on the dependent variable (academic performance) among the students at UiTM Seremban 3. This research will therefore help to recognize and understand the impact of academic performance of UiTM Seremban students during their studies.
