ABSTRACT

Kampung Permatang Saga is a place that is rich with historical place. This historical town is abandoned there are potentials to develop at the site. The suitable design ideas that can be implemented to this site is through Heritage Trail. Heritage Trail is design that uses learning, conservation and enhancement of the historical place. This approach at Kampung Permatang Saga will create attraction and give new knowledge for people about the history of place. The heritage trail is important to connect a space to another space that create a connector for the heritage nodes. The focused of development is to exposed the people with history in the different way and more enjoyable and more relaxing. Kampung Permatang Saga have potential to develop as a centre for local and also tourists using the element that can be found on the site. Besides that, Kampung Permatang Saga also can promote cultural activities that can be done with visitors using seasonal schedule. The suitable cultural activity that can be done at Kampung Permatang Saga is paddy harvesting and paddy replanting. This plan the historical remarks such as the old railway tracks will create an interesting heritage trail that will improving and generate more income for local people through the design ideas that have been identified.

Chapter One:

INTRODUCTION TO TOPIC

1.1 Introduction

Open space areas are defined as land used or intended for public recreational purposes. The design elements identified are in connection with public open space heritage and heritage conservation. Cultural heritage can be defined as how life created by the community and pass through generation to generation, including customs, practices, objects, expressions and also artistic value.

Landscape preservation is a new pattern that meets the requirements for scale action to act to address the world's reality. Landscape preservation can also be defined as an approach that can bring people together. An important place is known as a place that can affect the community as it has some special elements for the place. (Network for Landscape Conservation, 2017)

Cultural landscape is a mix of between natural and human and illustration of the evolution of human society and settlement. Historical backgrounds be defined included residential and community parks, highways, rural communities, institutional grounds, cemeteries, combat fields and zoological parks (Dennis, 1999) . Cultural heritage an associate expression of however life developed by the community and passed on from generation to generation. (Vecco, 2010)
