ABSTRACT

The purpose of this study was to examine the relationship between Green Home Concept and environmental sustainability. The study was carried between March until November 2021. Moreover, this study adopted a non-probability convenience sampling techniques in collecting the survey data. Other than that, the result of the study revealed three significant things. First and foremost, the study discovered that there is a significant relationship between Green Home Concept and environmental sustainability. Secondly, majority of the respondents are aware of environmental sustainability. Lastly, the study revealed that there is high exposure to the Green Home Concept among Malaysians. Thus, this study enables to highlight the concept of green home that associated with a sustainable environment.

Keywords: Green Home Concept, Environmental sustainability, Malaysians

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all, we would like to praise to Allah S.W.T. for giving us the opportunity because without His blessing we will not be able to successfully complete this research proposal. Despite the challenges that we faced in completing this work, everything was successfully wrapped with the help and guidance from Allah SWT.

Apart from that, we would like to thank our Faculty of Administrative Science and Policies Study (FSPPP) at UiTM Seremban 3, Negeri Sembilan for giving us this opportunity to get involve in doing this research proposal. Throughout in developing this research proposal, we gain a lot of experience, knowledge and exposure to several situations and challenges that we never faced before and this experiences certainly will be helpful in the future. Also, we would like to show our sincere gratitude to Dr. Siti Nur Fathanah Binti Abd Hamid, our supervisor for the dedication and commitment in assisting us to complete this research proposal. Thank you for the guidance and feedback on during the progress of this research.

We also want to thank our friends, classmates as well as other lecturer involved for always keep helping us in giving guideline and also motivation to keep going during the progress of this proposal. Besides, we would also like to thank our parents for always giving their support to us in making this research proposal. Last but not least, we sincerely thank all those who have given encouragement and helped us directly and indirectly in the success of this research proposal.
