Research Method & Data Analysis – Research Proposal

ABSTRACT

The purpose of this study was to identify and analyze the responsibilities of UiTM Seremban 3 students during online distance learning (ODL) amid Covid-19 Pandemic. This research study was implemented between October 2021 until February 2022. The method used in collecting the data survey was by using a probability stratified sampling technique. The findings on the result shows that there is a high level on the responsibilities of the students. Secondly, there are three factors which are competence, autonomy and relatedness that have a significant relationship on the responsibilities of students during online learning. Thirdly, autonomy is the most contributing factor that influenced the responsibilities of students during online learning. Therefore, the findings are important in providing both theoretical and empirical evidence for further study.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Firstly, we would like to thanks and praises to Allah, for his permission and blessings in allowing us to complete this research study. We also want to express our deepest appreciation and thanks to our supervisor in research which is Mr. Mohd Zulhilmi Mohd Yunus, for helping and providing us with great guidance during the process. His broad knowledge had encouraged us to do the research with the precise and clear understanding. Without his guidance, we would not have been able to complete this research.

We also wish to express our sincere gratitude to our lecturer Dr. Nurul Hidayana Binti Mohd Noor, for teaching and educating us further on research. It will be challenging for us to complete this study without her assistance. Furthermore, we are immensely thankful to our parents and family for their continuous supports and prayers for us while we finish this research. Their supports motivate us to overcome the obstacles we confront in finishing this research.

Lastly, we would like to offer our sincere thanks to our beloved friends for their help and motivation in accomplishing this research. Their helps and information sharing assisted us to complete this study. Therefore, we are thankful for all of the support and guidance provided by all parties in conducting this research.
