ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In the name of God, The Most Gracious and The Most Merciful. All praise to Allah for the opportunity, the energy, the wellbeing and help given throughout completing this project.

I'd like to thank my Industrial Training Project Paper Advisor in UiTM Kampus Bandaraya Melaka, Mr. Mohd Isham bin Abidin for his constant guidance, advice and support for me to complete this project paper titled "Factors Influencing Online Booking Decision on Hotel Website Among Tourists in Melaka". He has been very helpful in guiding through title selection, questionnaire construction and checking through my drafts until the completion of the paper and presentation. I'd also like to thank the second examiner, Dr. Najihah Hanisah Marmaya for her feedback on the project paper draft and presentation.

I will always be indebted to my family for their constant support and love, together with friends who have contributed to much help and support for me to complete this project. I'd like to thank to my fellow advisees whom we have given out reminders and checked out on each others progress regularly. I am also thankful for the respondents who participated in answering the survey required for this study

A special thanks to Mr. Joshua from Mahkota Parade Marketing Department for agreeing to offer a partnership for me to collect data among tourists visiting Mahkota Parade Shopping Centre.

Finally, I am grateful for everyone who have contributed in helping me to do this project till the very end. Thank you.

ABSTRACT

This study examines the Factors Influencing Online Booking Decision on Hotel Website. The results were gathered from 366 respondents using questionnaires. A survey made up of 30 questions that uses a Likert Scale questions to collect measurable values from respondents. Data analysis were carried to determine significant relationship between independent variables (Hotel Website Appearance, Hotel Website Content, Price, Brand Image and Customer Review) with the dependent variable (Online Booking Decision). This results show that Hotel Website Appearance, Hotel Website Content, and Customer Review have significant effect on Online Booking Decision while Price and Brand Image do not have significant effect on Online Booking Decision. Recommendation has been made for hoteliers to improve their hotel websites.
