ABSTRACT

This research aims to review the food and culture of Negeri Sembilan state in Peninsular Malaysia. The researchers applied a case study methodology in the information and data collection process. The focal point of the research findings is the Minangkabau culture that originated from Sumatera, Indonesia. This culture has been largely prevalent in Negeri Sembilan till today. However, there were several limitations to this study that could be overcome by future research. Nevertheless, this research on the food and culture of Negeri Sembilan was successfully completed, with hopes that it would benefit readers who wish to understand more about the state from its culinary and cultural aspects.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Alhamdulillah, all thanks and praises to Allah the Almighty, as finally, we were able to successfully complete this research within the stipulated time. This research is necessary in order to fulfil the requirements needed to the successful completion of our final semester of Bachelor's Degree. Despite a few minor deterrents that arised during the ongoing progress of this research paper, we managed to overcome the problems and succeeded in completing this work.

First and foremost, we would like to express our most sincere and heartfelt gratitude to our project advisor, Mr. Tajulurrus bin Mohammad without whom, we would be unable to produce a quality piece of work. We deeply appreciate his endless guidance and encouragement for us to strive in doing our best. We also wish to take this opportunity to extend our heartfelt thanks to all of our lecturers in the Faculty of Hotel & Tourism Management for imparting their knowledge to us besides providing us with their valuable support and assistance throughout our journey to receive our Bachelor's Degree.

Furthermore, we wish to extend our sincere appreciation to Lembaga Pelancongan Negeri Sembilan for their kind and generous assistance. They provided us with useful insights and information regarding the state of Negeri Sembilan. It is with their help that we were able to properly conduct this study until its successful completion.

Last but not least, we truly thank all of our family and friends for their unwavering support and encouragement, and to the readers of this work, for their interest. Thank you.
