#1

Debit vs Credit (1)

Miss : A debit is an accounting entry that results in either an increase in assets or a decrease in liabilities.

Kids :Oooooo...

Miss : For example, a small business owner purchases a refrigerator for his business. Refrigerator is an asset, so it should be recorded as debit or credit?

Kids : CRRREEEEEEEEBBBIIIIIIIIIT!

#2

Debit vs Credit (2)

Miss : Class, if DR stands for debit, then could anyone tell me what CR stands for?

Kids : Cristiano Ronaldo!

#3

WWW vs WNB

Miss : Class, next week is Week Without Walls so we are going to have online classes. Enjoy your class break time but don't forget to regularly check out the i-Learn for WWW tasks.

Kids : Alaaaa...

Miss : Don't you all love WWW?

Kids : Yes, but we love WNB more!

#4

Because of you

Miss : Diversification can only reduce risks but cannot eliminate it. Can anyone explain why is it so?

Kids :Because...

Miss : Because of what class?

Kids : Because of you... I never stray too far from the sidewalk (sing the Kelly Clarkson's song until the end)

#5

Miss-Knows-Everything

Kid 1 : Miss, how do you know that we need to put a negative sign for the initial outlays?

Miss : Because it is a cost. When we pay for a project, the cash is transferred out.

Kid 2 : Miss, why do we accept the project when NPV is positive?

Miss : Positive NPV means that the project will maximize the shareholders' wealth.

Kids : Miss, when are you getting married?

Miss : On my wedding day.

Kids : Miss, do you really have answers for everything?

#6

Do you have any questions?

Miss : Before we call it a day, do you have any questions?

Kid 1 : Can I ask you something?

Miss : Sure...

Kid 1 : Where do you usually buy your tudung?

#7 Frequently-Asked-Questions (FAQ)

Week 1.

Kids : Miss, how old are you?

Miss : You have 14 weeks to find out.

Study week.

Kids : Miss, can you tell us your age please. It's bugging us, we cannot concentrate on the final exam until we know the answer.

Miss : Don't worry, the exam question won't ask for my age.

Results day.

Kids : We did it, thanks to you Miss. So, how old are you, Miss?

#8 Risk-takers vs risk-averse

Miss : There are two types of investors. Those who like high returns and are up for challenges are risk takers while risk-averse investors will always opt for investment with minimum risk. So, class, which group do you belong to?

Kid 1 : I think I am risk averse.

Miss : What about you? Are you a risk-taker or risk-averse?

Kid 2 : I am Rizuan Shah.

#9 Wishes

Miss : Class, if you really want something, go and make du'a for it. Be sincere and please be very specific of what you wish for.

Kid 1 : Miss, I have a du'a for you. I wish that you reach home before 4 pm today, safe and sound.

Miss : Thanks for the wish, but the time now is 3 pm already. Are you trying to say that we should finish the class now?

#10 Mergers and Acquisitions

Miss: The conglomerate merger is the merger of two different industries. Among the most well-known examples is the merger between Walt Disney Company and ABC Corporation.

Kids : Oooooo...

Miss : Class, could you give me any example of a merger that we can categorize as a conglomerate? Think of two total strangers that will do things better together.

Kids : You and me?

#11 Talking Quota

Miss : Why are you all so quiet today? Who kidnapped your voice, girls and guys?

Kids : It's Thursday afternoon, we are running out of talking quota, Miss!

#12 Miss you!

Kids : Miss...

Miss : Yes?

Kids : Miss...

Miss : Yup, what's up?

Kids : Miss you!
