Early morning everyday
Hustle for the pay
Will today be a better day?
Or is it just another day?

Getting herself ready
Sipping her usual coffee
Then she saw the piled laundry
Sighing, why is she just too busy?

It is ironic and also silly
Every month she pays hefty sum of money
To call a place her sole property
Mostly just to leave it empty

It's time to hit the road at six-thirty
Driving alone can be so lonely
Tune in her favourite frequency
Listening what's happening in the city

From crimes to corruptions
Global warming to pollutions
To date, there are still people in hunger
The city is in danger!

She knows that today is just another day
Not any better than yesterday
But she'll wait day-to-day
For everything to be better than just okay
