ABSTRACT

1.1 Background As we all know, there are specific roles and responsibilities of the commanders unit especially the 'Kesatria' unit in UiTM Sabah Campus. But, as we can see, these commanders usually appear in any events that university established.

1975 and early 1976 were the first start in Kesatria Unit establishment. There were about 200 students dismissed because of the incident.

It seems like their real roles are not clear anymore. Sometimes it also seems like they are already exceeding their authority. Maybe there are some students that feel uncomfortable or dislike with this situation. Furthermore, their roles effectiveness is still under question.

and in June 1976 in all UiTM branches. In the early stage, Kesatria Unit was only for volunteers but in 1976, it become the curriculum and stated in the academic syllabus. All freshmen are compulsory to join it and they must pass the subject in order to get their diploma certificate.

Kesatria Unit commanders are consisting of ordinary Kesatria member that already taking the pre commander intensive training. Active participation in make them a student that able to do every task given because they usually expose in many activities.

1.0 INTRODUCTION

1.1 Brief History of the Kesatria Unit

Two events of demonstration by university students included UITM in the end of year 1975 and early 1976 were the first start in Kesatria Unit establishment. There were about 200 students dismissed because of the incident. UITM viewed the incident as a serious matters and it showed the need in improving student's discipline.

The Kesatria Unit finally established in June 1976 in all UITM branches. In the early stage, Kesatria Unit was only for volunteers but in 1978, it become the curriculum and stated in the academic syllabus. All freshmen are compulsory to join it and they must pass the subject in order to get their diploma certificate.

Kesatria Unit commanders are consisting of ordinary Kesatria member that already taking the pre commander intensive training. Active participation in make them a student that able to do every task given because they usually expose in many activities.
