ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I take this opportunity to earnestly acknowledge the help of many people who helped me finished this project paper (FIN 650)

I am particularly very thankful to Mr. Ambi Kun for his encouraging views, advice and guidance and for being my advisor for this project.

Thanks to Mr. David Ting, Unit Trust Funds Consultant of TA Unit Trust Bhd, Miri branch that had actually introduce me to unit trust business even before the selection of the title of this project paper.

I would like to thank Mr. George, Unit Trust Funds Consultant of CMS Unit Trust Bhd, Mdm. Karen Kong S.K, Senior Consultant of Am investment services and Mr. Joseph Goh of John Hancock Insurance Bhd, Miri branch for their time and assistance through ideas, advice and providing information needed for this project paper.

With this opportunity, I also would like to thank all the lecturers of Faculty of Business Management of UITM Cawangan Sarawak for their time and imparting knowledge and experience and giving advice while lecturing to distance learning student (PJJ).

To Mr. Sadit Taha and Puan Epon the distance learning program focal point, who were very helpful and patient in attending to queries and giving necessary assistance when required during the whole duration of my studies.

My special thanks to my sister Mdm. Ennis Gabar and her husband Mr. Francis Liu for their encouragement and hospitality by providing accommodation during my stay in Kuching while attending seminars and sitting for final exam.

To my dear wife, Olivia Yvonne Samy, who help me cheerfully typed the manuscript and to my children, Cheryl Supang and Celyn Ruran for the sacrifices that they have given, as a lot of precious time for being together have been denied.

Finally, all praise and thanks giving be unto God for wisdom and strength to complete this task.

May God Bless You All.
