Kid-Friendly Boutique Hotels in Penang

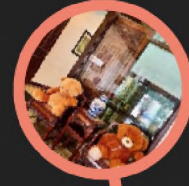

By: Noraziah Mohd Amin

Areca Hotel

Located on Khoo Sian Ewe Street, Georgetown, Penang, the Areca Hotel is a magnificently restored boutique hotel that perfectly merges history, comfort, and modern amenities. Nestled within a UNESCO World Heritage Site, the hotel reflects Penang's rich culture, providing guests with a unique experience of vacationing at a historic building while enjoying contemporary facilities. The presence of teddy bears in a hotel lobby creates a welcoming, playful, and family-friendly ambiance. It suggests that the hotel is aiming for a warm and cosy vibe, appealing especially to families with children. The mix of traditional furniture and the playful element of the teddy bears balances sophistication with a sense of fun and comfort.

Areca Hotel is located in a row of rebuilt 19th-century heritage shophouses, which are typical of Penang's colonial architecture. With its classic exterior and elegantly furnished interiors, the hotel harmoniously combines traditional appeal and modern design. The rooms are large and elegant, with high ceilings, old furnishings, and natural lighting, creating a cosy and restful ambiance. Each room has modern conveniences including air conditioning, Wi-Fi, and ensuite bathrooms, offering a pleasant stay.

The Areca Hotel is notable for its family-friendly atmosphere. The hotel has family accommodations and a playroom for kids, making it an ideal choice for families travelling together. The playroom is bright and cheerful, featuring colourful walls adorned with a lively mural of a countryside scene. The artwork includes whimsical elements such as hot air balloons, trains, tractors, rivers, and flowers, creating a playful and engaging environment. The flooring is covered with interlocking foam mats in various colours, ensuring safety and comfort for children while they play. The room is equipped with a variety of toys such as a train track set, wooden puzzles, bead mazes, and other educational toys.

Armenian Street Heritage Hotel

Nestled in the dynamic center of Georgetown, Penang, the Armenian Street Heritage Hotel is a delightful property that combines modern luxury with cultural heritage. Located on the famous Armenian Street, one of Georgetown's most recognised history zones, the hotel is surrounded by historical sites, colourful street art, and lively markets, making it a perfect choice for those looking to immerse themselves in Penang's distinct landscape. The hotel is built in a renovated heritage structure that preserves the architectural splendour of Georgetown's UNESCO-designated cultural zone. The furnishings are meticulously created to showcase Penang's rich cultural heritage, merging traditional aesthetics with modern facilities. The rooms are comfortable and nicely furnished, with features including air conditioning, free Wi-Fi, flat-screen TVs, and ensuite bathrooms. Armenian Street Heritage Hotel also offers a playful and creatively designed fire truck-themed bed, making it an ideal choice for families travelling with children. The bed includes details like printed wheels and a ladder on the side for climbing to the top bunk. The realistic design transforms the bed into more than just a sleeping area as it doubles as a play space, sparking imagination and excitement.

The hotel also offers a rooftop terrace where guests can relax and enjoy panoramic views of Penang city. The rooftop communal area of the Armenian Heritage Hotel, Penang, is a charming and versatile space that highlights the hotel's family-friendly atmosphere. The inclusion of hanging swings in the communal area adds a playful and engaging element, making it a fun spot for children to enjoy. The swings are designed to provide entertainment and relaxation for kids, creating a joyful ambiance. The artificial grass-like flooring enhances the safety of children as they play, offering a soft and comfortable surface. To conclude, this hotel's strategic location, comfortable amenities, and warm hospitality make it a perfect choice for anyone exploring Penang's rich heritage.

23 Love Lane Hotel

23 Love Lane Penang is a boutique hotel located on Love Lane, Georgetown Penang, with a distinct blend of historical elegance and contemporary convenience. The hotel has ten distinctively styled rooms situated in structures that represent five different architectural eras dating back to the 1800s. Each room is spacious enough for a small family and guests can request a baby cot which is subject to availability upon checking in.

The hotel offers a library located on the upper floor of the Anglo-Indian Bungalow. The library has books, magazines, and board games for a family to relax and have a good time together. The library area is suitable for children aged 6 and above who want to use the area for reading or enjoy doing small activities together such as origami or colouring. The hotel also has a spacious garden area for kids to walk around and play with their families.
