Keys to Consultancy Success is a guide and source of reference for people with professional background who are working as consultants or who wish to engage in consultancy work. It provides a practical approach to the processes and procedures for consultancy work following a linear sequence starting from how to prepare for a consulting role to securing business and engagement with a client. This is a practical book that contains templates, check lists and basic advice on how to develop a consulting practice.

Chris Saville was educated at the Grammar School, Rye, Sussex, United Kingdom. He graduated from Oxford University and was awarded his Ph.D. from the Centre for Applied Research at the University of East Anglia. In 1992, he was elected a Fellow of Royal Society of Arts and the following year as a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development. He has lectured and led seminars in the UK, Germany, United States of America and Russia.

Chris Saville has had wide exposure with a range of Malaysian organisations in the private and public sectors. He provides advanced research and consultancy services and specialist development programmes, assessment and evaluation technologies. He has undertaken corruption prevention research and module development assignments for the United Nation/MACA Development Programme. He is the international advisor to the MACC Academy Board.

Now a permanent resident in Malaysia, Chris Saville was appointed as Honorary Consultant to Universiti Teknologi MARA. He is also the international advisor to Dato' Shafie Apdal, Minister of Rural and Regional Development Malaysia.

Norsaadah Ismail received her B.Sc (Hons) Chemistry from Loughborough University of Technology, United Kingdom, PhD (Chemistry) from Northern Illinois University United States of America. She was the founding director of both the Centre of UiTM-Industry (UILC) and the Division of Industry Relations, Department of Ministry of Higher Education. Prior to this, she held the position as head of the Bureau of Research and Consultancy of Universiti Teknologi MARA (UiTM).

She has undertaken many training programmes at both corporate organisations and universities, such as "Developing and Managing Research and Consultancy Skills", "Commercialising Research Outputs", "Tips on how to obtain your PhD" and "The making of a Consultant".

She has also been invited as speaker and as forum panelist on issues pertaining to university-industry relationships, sustainable networking and strategic alliances.

Presently, she is the Deputy Vice-Chancellor of Industry, Community and Alumni Network (ICAN) for UiTM.
